

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Marla Thompson
770-210-9165
marlajthompson@hotmail.com

THE NATIONAL LEADERSHIP GROUP PRESENTS
Touch One Touch A Generation
Single Parent Work Shop II

Atlanta, GA. (August 29, 2010) - The National Leadership Group Inc., (a 501c3) is once again extending a helping hand to single parents by having its second annual Single Parents Workshop Saturday, October 23, from 10am to 5pm, at the Georgia International Convention Center in College Park, GA.

The workshops will consist of 45 minute sessions in Money Management, Credit Counseling, Parenting Skills and other topics designed to encourage and inspire single parents to believe and say "YES I CAN" live a successful, fulfilled and happy life while motivating and raising their children to be successful. There will also be vendors providing information for home buying and also providing different down payment programs that are available.

"The success of the first Single Parent Workshop last year, founder, Beverly Brewster explained, led me and the National Leadership Group to conduct another workshop. With the help of Choice Events of Atlanta this year will be more exciting than last year with vendors, simultaneous workshops and breakout sessions designed to help parents and families. There's something for everyone." Prizes will be awarded throughout the day.

The opening plenary begins at 10:00am followed by breakout sessions that will run for 45 minutes with 15 minute breaks in between. The featured sessions are Parenting Skills led by National Leadership Group member, Lenora Daniel, Anthony Stroman President, Stroman Enterprises teaching Credit Counseling, Joyce Council, with Money 4 Life teaching Money Management, Deborah Meadows teaching Time & Stress Management, Evangelist Irma Power teaching Spirituality, Body Soul & Spirit and Brandon Pelissero with Climate Neutral, Inc will conduct a workshop on How to get the most for your Money. Also, two times World Open Speed Chess Champion Orrin "Checkmate" Hudson will conduct two sessions on teaching self esteem through chess.

This workshop valuing at $150.00 is made available to all single parents who pre-register for only $10.00 ($15.00 at the door). There is no cost for children between the ages 6-12.

Registration and donations can be done online using Debit cards, major credit cards or Pay Pal at www.tl1tg.com. Checks or money orders can be sent to The National Leadership Group, Inc. POB 962546, Riverdale, GA 30296.

The National Leadership Group welcomes vendors and also sponsorship of any companies or organizations wishing to be sponsors for this great event to help single parents and their children. Please go to the website for more information and to complete the sponsorship form.

Additional questions can be addressed at info@touchonetouchageneration.com, or by calling 770-997-6868.

PHOTO CAPTION:

Members left to right

Ruth Brewster - Board member
Cristopher Ford - CFO
Beverly Brewster - CEO & President
Lenora Daniel - Secretary
Deborah Meadows - Board member

